- 2 Equipment furnished will include risers, P.A., piano, and music stands as needed. No substitutions may be made for furnished equipment. You must provide your own drums, amps, bass, guitar, synthesizers, etc. If the festival is able and decides to provide drums and amps, you will be notified.

- 7 Freedom of repertoire is allowed. However, to be competitive, groups must perform a variety of jazz styles including a ballad. Slow swing tunes and pop songs do not count as ballads. This ballad does not have to be a cappella.
- 8 The top scoring choir from middle school, junior high, and non-mixed divisions will perform at the Sing-off concert on Saturday afternoon. The top two choirs from all other divisions will compete for 1st and 2nd place trophies. All choirs selected to perform at the Sing-off must have earned a "1" rating during the day. All high school finalists must perform a new song at finals to win their division and to be eligible to win sweepstakes.

Schools who enroll at least one concert choir and one jazz choir will be eligible for the Outstanding Department Award for the division appropriate to their school size, provided both scores are a "II" rating or above. Scores of the school's top concert entry and top jazz entry will be combined to determine this award. These awards will be presented at Saturday's finals concert.
